Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015 (File #: PB/118/2020)

On February 12, 2020, Nalcor Energy received your request for access to the following records/information:

Nalcor ATIPP Feb 12 2020 re MF Rate Mitigation

To determine and negotiate the best possible financial structure to achieve rate mitigation

- To assemble a team that included independent external advice and analysis
- Senior officials from Intergovernmental Affairs, Justice and Public Safety, Natural Resources, Finance and Executive Council
- External team comprised of legal, financial, and electricity industry experts

Re MF Rate Mitigation

1/ Was Nalcor part of the group?

2/ Provide details on Nalcor members

3/ If Nalcor was not part NL Gov group why not?

Please see below for the information that is responsive to your request:

(1) Was Nalcor part of the group?

Nalcor did provide technical information as requested by the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador (GNL) and the federal government, however, that was the extent of Nalcor's involvement in the government led initiative as outlined in the "February 10, 2020 Muskrat Falls – Financial Restructuring Update" presentation.

(2) Provide details on Nalcor members

Please see the response to part 1, above.

(3) If Nalcor was not part NL Gov group why not?

As this was an initiative led by GNL, Nalcor is not in a position to respond to this question. If you require more information with respect to this, we kindly suggest that you consult with GNL on this component of your request.

Since the February 10, 2020 announcement was made, Nalcor has become involved with GNL to collaboratively support and progress this initiative. A number of Nalcor employees from various areas of the organization are now involved in this ongoing process.

It is the goal to publish this letter following a 72 hour period after it is sent electronically to you or five business days in the case where the letter has been mailed to you.

Please be advised that you may ask the Information and Privacy Commissioner to review the processing of your access request, as set out in section 42 of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the Act). A request to the Commissioner must be made in writing within 15 business days of the date of this letter or within a longer period that may be allowed by the Commissioner. Your appeal should identify your concerns with the request and why you are submitting the appeal.

The appeal may be addressed to the Information and Privacy Commissioner as follows:

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner
2 Canada Drive
P. O. Box 13004, Stn. A
St. John's, NL. A1B 3V8
Telephone: (709) 729-6309
Toll-Free: 1-877-729-6309
Facsimile: (709) 729-6500

You may also appeal directly to the Supreme Court Trial Division within 15 business days after you receive the decision of the public body, pursuant to section 52 of the Act (a copy of this section of the Act has been enclosed for your reference).

If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact the undersigned by telephone at (709) 733-5346 or by e-mail at granthiscock@nalcenergy.com.

Sincerely,

Access or correction complaint

42. (1) A person who makes a request under this Act for access to a record or for correction of personal information may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting a decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request.

(2) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) A third party informed under section 19 of a decision of the head of a public body to grant access to a record or part of a record in response to a request may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting that decision.

(4) A complaint under subsection (3) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days after the third party is informed of the decision of the head of the public body.

(5) The commissioner may allow a longer time period for the filing of a complaint under this section.

(6) A person or third party who has appealed directly to the Trial Division under subsection 52(1) or 53(1) shall not file a complaint with the commissioner.

(7) The commissioner shall refuse to investigate a complaint where an appeal has been commenced in the Trial Division.

(8) A complaint shall not be filed under this section with respect to

(a) a request that is disregarded under section 21;

(b) a decision respecting an extension of time under section 23;

(c) a variation of a procedure under section 24; or

(d) an estimate of costs or a decision not to waive a cost under section 26.

(9) The commissioner shall provide a copy of the complaint to the head of the public body concerned.

Direct appeal to Trial Division by an applicant

52. (1) Where an applicant has made a request to a public body for access to a record or correction of personal information and has not filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42, the applicant may appeal the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request directly to the Trial Division.

(2) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (1) not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) Where an applicant has filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42 and the commissioner has refused to investigate the complaint, the applicant may commence an appeal in the Trial Division of the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request for access to a record or for correction of personal information.

(4) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (3) not later than 15 business days after the applicant is notified of the commissioner's refusal under subsection 45(2).
